A cartoon illustration on a dark blue background. On the left is a simple stick figure with a grey rectangular head and torso. In the center, the word "Uranus" is written in large, white, rounded letters. On the right is a small, orange, segmented worm-like character with a green cone on its head and a white oval mouth. A portion of a black and white polka-dot pattern is visible in the top right corner.
